

The Centre for Islamic Finance at the University of Bolton warmly invites you to "The History of England and Wales in 2.2 Hours" with Ken Eglinton.

ENGLAND'S STORY

Ken Eglinton

*When - Thursday 24th
November 2022*

*Where - D2-028 Law
Court, University of Bolton*

Time - Starting at 4pm

*Please click the link to book
a place*

ABOUT THE EVENT

Join Ken Eglinton as he delivers his popular talk 'The History of England and Wales in 2.2 Hours.' He tells the story of a journey from serfdom to freedom, and from ignorance to enlightenment. Through rebellion, war, learning, plague, poetry, and murder, an English national identity emerges.

Ken's talk originated from many conversations over the years with those who know aspects of English history (perhaps studied the Saxons and the Tudors at school, and have vaguely heard of Magna Carta, the Peasants Revolt, the Battle of Blenheim) and wish they knew how it all fits together. Many people from overseas also enjoy this introduction to England's story. In his talk Ken very much tells the story, joining the dots in a digestible way, with plenty of pictures, drama, humour, and some controversy.

To book a place please click the link.

ITINERARY

4pm - Talk starts

4.40pm - Break

4.45pm - Talk restarts

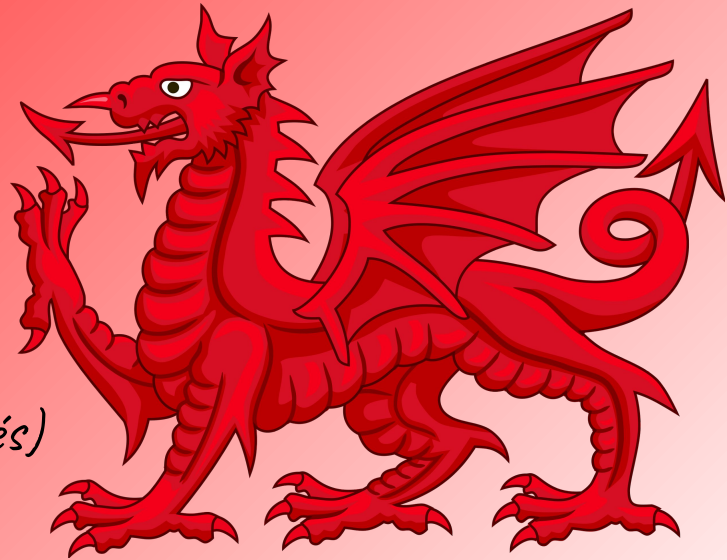

5.20pm - Break (drinks and canapés)

5.50pm - Talk restarts

6.30pm - Break

6.35pm - Talk restarts

7.10pm - Closing Remarks by Sir John Hayes, MP

THE SPEAKER

After studying at Manchester University, Dr Ken Eglinton has had a successful 44 year career in professional services in the City of London. He has much experience as a public speaker on a wide range of subjects including history, financial crime, and Islamic finance and has written many published articles on history. Ken is a visiting fellow at the Centre for Islamic Finance, University of Bolton where he provides occasional lectures to the post-graduate students. He has delivered his acclaimed 'History of England & Wales in 2.2 hours' for a number of charities at several venues in London and the South-East, and is now bringing it North for the first time.