INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES - THE SUBSTANTIVE QUESTION

There are SIX questions and you should answer any FOUR of them. Each question is worth equal marks.

Start each answer on a fresh page and make it clear which question you are answering by giving the question number at the beginning of your answer.

The answers expected refer to legal terms of art. Your answers should therefore relate to this professional vocabulary and not simply to the general meaning of words and expression.

Both question paper and answer book must be handed in at the end of the examination.

All answers should be written in the answer book to be marked.
